Customer Reviews

I really enjoyed this resource to use with my class. I teach bible to 6th graders and this book was very useful and helping them to think about the life of Christ. I enjoyed it so much that I ordered 5 others in the creative series! I like them all!

I cannot speak for the rest of the Creative Bible Studies lessons, however after being recommended Doug Fields materials, I thought I'd give this a shot for a weekend youth ministry. These lessons are low on scripture and focus more on cheesy little ministry cliches that are going to do nothing for today's youth. They may be affective for 5/6th grades but not for any age older. These lessons certainly won't fit well into Sunday School either considering how light they are. These may make some decent supplements to other lessons here and there but I really would not recommend it either as they are simply going to make your students roll their eyes and can't believe you were able to say that without laughing at yourself.

Just what I was looking forward, well packaged and delivered on time. Would definitely buy again.

Good lessons for middle/high schoolers.

I Purchased this book on 01/04/2008 for use with my teen Group. It is a great book with lesson that will help your teens better understand the life of Christ and who he is.
