On my knees has helped me get through many of my own uncertainties that were happening in my life . When I was standing on the supermarket check out line, my eye immediately set on When I'm on my knees and I've been on my knees ever since, praying to god, thanking god, and realizing that I can count my blessings and not my troubles, and that I have been truly blessed... The book also helped me become stronger to deal with alot of issues that were happening in my life.Thankyou,
ANITA CORRINE DONIHUE

I thouroughly enjoyed the author's down-to-earth prayers. I highly recommend this book for all women. In fact, I have purchased several copies for friends and family members.

I have been buying and giving these away for years...they are the perfect books for women..wheather grieving or just need a "lift"..thanks to Anita for all her writings....there are several different ones for women...take time to look up her bio..and titles of some of her other Books For Women....they are better than a card...they are sooo cheap here on ...and only 3.99 usually for S&H...cards are more than that...check it out...

The print in this pretty little book is so light that I cannot read most of it. Only a few pages are clear. In addition, this hardback issue contains only a fraction of what I found so inspiring in the paperback book that I borrowed. It was really disappointing.

Had this booklet for over 20 years. A church member saw it and asked if I could get one for her. I'm glad it's still available. Going to get a few for Mother's Day gifts.

This is my second purchase of this book. I made a gift of my first one to a family member. I just recently lost my husband after a lengthy illness, and this book has been a great uplift for me.

I already had a paperback copy of this book and I love it. I purchased the hard cover for a women's recovery center. I think it has a lot of wonderful stories, scripture and prayers in it.
