Worthless: New Adult Paranormal Romance (Age Of Blood Book 2)

Synopsis

Enslaved at Vincent's for five years, Cece has absolutely no sense of self worth left by the time the Knights unexpectedly get her out. She drifts further into depression until a stranger sees through her shields and forces her to recover. Michael never thought he might find a consort, or a girlfriend, for that matter. Vampire politics involve games; the only women who can stand it are those who have been groomed for it. It's a matter of tradition and as King of the American Coven, he cannot escape it. The problem? He has no interest in any of the Aspirants. Comes Cece, a human, who has unknowingly been trained to become a vampire Lord's mate for five years. She's absolutely perfect for him. If only she could believe in herself...--Worthless is the second volume from the Age of Blood series. You can read each volume separately, but I'd recommend starting with Wordless. Wordless - May 2016 - novel (Fay and William) Worthless - June 2016 - novella (Cece and Michael) Priceless - July 2017 - novel (Trisha and Adrian) Spin off: Love Blows - Laketown wolves - June

Customer Reviews

I've read everything I could find by this author and I've absolutely loved every single one of them except this one. It isn't a bad read but compared to her other writing it just doesn't quite measure up in my opinion. There were a few things I didn't like about this book and the fact that it was only 99 pages compared to the 256 pages of the first book probably didn't help. If you read the first book Wordless then you probably fell in love with William and Fay like I did. Prepare yourself for a let down because a couple of things happen in the second book that doesn't show them at their best. I was left going what???? I obviously hated it and I don't think it goes with what we learned about them in book one. Honestly it just didn't fit with their characters personality and it left a bad taste in my mouth. I already wasn't sold on Cecelia/Cece. I felt awful for everything she went through and wanted her to have a happily ever after, but I didn't like that she resented her cousin (Fay) so much all because she wasn't abused as badly and had better blood. She was so bitter in book one it was hard to like her. Because all those "nothing's too good for perfect little Fay" or "princess Fay can do no wrong" type of thoughts and attitude just turned me off. As book two went on it got better. Yet without a redeeming moment or moments to turn things around we are left with an anticlimactic realization of "who knew I actually do care about her instead of hating her." It was too little to late in my opinion. It isn't as if Fay was mean or wasn't a victim to abuse so for someone who was like an older sister to her growing up to not want the best for her is unacceptable.
