Wow!Wow!Wow! Terri Brisbin writer extraordinaire never ceases to amaze me! I have been reading her wonderful stories for a couple decades at least whether if its one of her Scottish historical romance's or her wonderful paranormal fantasy Stone Circle series I always seems to be swept away and thoroughly enchanted and mesmerized. In this book you can feel her passion and how she write with her heart on her sleeve with wonderful dialogue, intricate details and unforgettable characters, that you can't help but fall in love with. If your a fan of Scotland, it's heritage, land and kilted lads this is a book you don't want to miss or you will ever forget!This is the second book in the spectacular new series "A Highland Feuding". In this book it is about a political marriage and neither party the bride nor groom is thrilled about the prospect of this match! Especially the bride to be, Eva MacKay, but she is the daughter of the ruthless, cruel mean and diabolical Chieftain Ramsay MacKay. The MacKay has no problem using his own flesh and blood to have his way, by threats, blackmail, strap or fists! Even if it means using and degrading his own daughter! In this story Eva MacKay was disobedient for the first time in her life and followed her heart. All it did was end up in disaster, as one already she loved is already gone and possibly even another! One she can't bare to be away from even though she doesn't know this individual's exact location. Now Eva is filled with guilt and remorse for all her past decisions that cost her everything! It is a secret she can never tell her groom or anyone the truth or someone she loves more than her own life might die!
