Customer Reviews

The NFHS is the authoritative source for football rules related to high school age athletes and younger. They are written with an eye towards player safety and promoting good sportsmanship. Every individual involved in high school football should own a copy of this book.

What are they charging for this? It should be free. The parents need to know the rules and this was developed with tax payer funds!!

Nice having it on my iPad. It is faster to search rules than the book and if there is a related rule it has a hyperlink to the related rule.

speaking as a HS official for over 20 years, the book was exactly what I expected.

Great to have access at fingertips to review rules no matter where you are at.

Well, it's a rules book, it's not like we're critiquing writing or style, lol.

Great search options. Can't beat having this on your phone or mobile device.
