Customer Reviews

This short story packs a punch and makes you wish for more which thankfully you can get in Warrior's Conquest. Elle James is wonderful at grabbing the readers interest and getting you to want more. Don't pass up this up because it will satisfy your craving in a longer story.

Konrad and his soldiers have come to Ireland and conquered a village. He left Norway to get out from under his older brotherâ™s leadership and find a new home. Brigid is the leader of the clan that Konrad has conquered; she would do anything to protect her people. Konrad had Brigid gather the unwed women and announced his intention to take a wife. She offers herself to protect her younger sister from being chosen. She has a plan to drug him to get him to leave her land but things don't quite work out the way she intended. Their wedding night is nice and steamy; Konrad proves to be a considerate lover. This is a great short story! I purchased this short story as part of the Conquests Viking Romance anthology.

This is a very quick read. It's fun though but expect a short story and quick courtship. Konrad has just conquered Brigid's clan and she is not very happy about it but is going to step up to protect her clan as it's leader. This leads her to getting married to Konrad and I'm sure you can guess where it goes from there. This is a typical Elle James book which means it is full of great characters. I would have loved more in this story but it is a great little story.

Konrad a warrior who wants nothing but to stop his traveling and fighting for a family..... Brigid fights to keep her clan and her sisters innocent but now she must lose hers. Elle James brings you two characters who fight for what they want to protect what they must. They find that once they allow feelings to unfold the heat, the sparks have been united.
